Gillian Hallam
Queensland University of Technology

Since mid 2007, A/Prof Gillian Hallam has been the Project Leader for the Australian ePortfolio Project, which has culminated in the release of the Final Report for the project. A/Prof Hallam has maintained her professional involvement in the library and information services (LIS) sector, nationally and internationally, specifically in the area of education and training. One of A/Prof Hallam’s areas of specialisation is Professional Practice, with a deep interest in the e-portfolio as a tool to support students’ development of and reflection on professional skills and knowledge. A/Prof Hallam has been a member of the QUT Student ePortfolio (SeP) reference group and has played a pivotal role in the piloting of the SeP system with postgraduate students. She is a Fellow of ALIA and HERDSA.
