Beverley Oliver
Curtin University of Technology

Beverley Oliver is Director of Teaching and Learning at Curtin University where she has had extensive experience in leading teaching and learning projects such as creating and implementing eVALUate (Curtin’s online student feedback system) and Curriculum 2010 (Curtin’s university-wide curriculum reform initiative). Professor Oliver publishes in a range of teaching and learning areas, including graduate employability, student evaluation, curriculum renewal, academic literacy and m-learning.